CAPITOL WATCH

Economic stimulus legislative clears hurdle
Late Thursday afternoon, the Assembly Budget Committee cleared A-3680, also known as the New Jersey Economic Opportunity Act of 2013, for a full vote in the General Assembly. If enacted, the legislation would consolidate 5 business incentive programs into 2 programs. Read more

Contributions to county political parties down
In a report released this week by the Election Law Enforcement Commission (ELEC), contributions to New Jersey's County Political Party Committees (both Democratic and Republican) are down more than 29% from 4 years ago. Read more

MEMBER NEWS

Collemi to speak for CFO Magazine series
Salvatore Collemi from Rothstein Kass will be one of the guest speakers for CFO Magazine's CFO Playbook on Accounting series discussing the concept of possible mandatory audit firm rotation be implemented in the U.S. and the related implications to the economic system examining both sides of the issue on Monday, April 29th at 2 pm EST. Read more

Mack-Cali announces award
Mack-Cali Realty Corporation (NYSE: CLI) today announced that 105 Eisenhower Parkway at Eisenhower/280 Corporate Center in Roseland, N.J. has been awarded LEED-EB: OM 2009 Silver certification from the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC). Read more

Breast Cancer Program receives accreditation
The Breast Cancer Program at HackensackUMC Receives its First Accreditation from the National Accreditation Program for Breast Centers. Read more

Upcoming manufacturing events
Click here to view flyers. Please support these events which hope to connect manufacturers, education providers, county administration, chambers, etc. Read more

Englewood Hospital hosted learned program
Englewood Hospital and Medical Center recently hosted an interactive learning program called “The Systems of the Body” for fourth graders from Hoover Elementary School in Bergenfield. Read more

Montanaro elected to State Board of Directors of Junior Achievement of New Jersey
Craig L. Montanaro, President & CEO of Kearny Federal Savings Bank has been elected to the State Board of Directors of Junior Achievement of New Jersey. Montanaro has over twenty years of banking experience has been employed with Kearny Federal since 2003, previously serving as President and Chief Operating Officer.

Coyle joins LeClairRyan
John D. Coyle has joined LeClairRyan as senior counsel on the firm's Tort Defense and Business Litigation Practice Area teams. He will be resident in the national law firm's Newark office. Coyle focuses his practice on products liability and personal injury defense. He handles a wide range of matters, from defending defective design claims to actions involving fatal accidents.

HEADLINES

Asbury Park Press

- Stocks finish higher as job market improves

May 17 - Holy Name Medical Center

45th Annual Golf Outing
May 20 - Upper Montclair Country Club

"Spirit of New Jersey" Dinner & Networking Cruise
May 21 - Lincoln Harbor

Bruce G. Siminoff Legislative One-on-One Dinner
May 28 - Nanina's In The Park

EBC Roundtable
May 29 - PSE&G Training and Development Center

Stay Connected

[Join Our Mailing List]

June Events

Financial Decision Makers Roundtable
June 11 - Hilton Hasbrouck Heights

Women of Influence In NJ
May 11 - Ramapo College of NJ
- Tax on electric cars by the mile?

  The Bergen Record

  - PSE&G may take over Long Island electric utility
  - Walmart likely in Teterboro, Costco may follow

- Big banks shedding jobs
  - Assembly panel approves bill to overhaul corporate economic incentives

  The Star Ledger

- Homeowners make way for Cooper Medical School
  - NJ Transit tests smartphone tickets

  Philadelphia Inquirer

---

EBC Presents: Implementing Site Remediation Activities Program

June 13 - Pines Manor

Generation Now Networking Event

June 20 - Biagio's Restaurant