CAPITOL WATCH

NJ Health Commissioner Addresses Members
The New Jersey Department of Health (NJDOH) Commissioner, Mary O’Dowd, addressed members this week at Holy Name Medical Center in Teaneck as part of CIANJ’s Healthcare Roundtable Meetings. To read more and for a copy of the Commissioner’s presentation, click here.

Members Learn About Campaign Financing Laws
More than 30 members gathered in the CIANJ Offices in Paramus this week to hear from legal experts and the Executive Director of the Election Law Enforcement Commission (aka ELEC) about campaign financing laws sometimes referred to as “Pay to Play”. To read more, and for a copy of the presentation, click here.

Only 108 Days Until Election Day!
With all the distractions summer brings, it is important to remind everyone that election day is fast approaching. While 108 days may seem like a long time, in reality it is not when one considers what is at stake in these elections. Read more

MEMBER NEWS

Brian L. Strom, M.D., M.P.H., a renowned epidemiologist, award-winning teacher and clinician, and longtime academic leader at the University of Pennsylvania, will become the inaugural chancellor of Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences (RBHS) on Dec. 2, Rutgers University President Robert L. Barchi announced this week. Read more

Bikers rode in full force to support Hackensack University Medical Center's patients and programs in the HackensackUMC Foundation's 13th Annual Motorcycle Charity Run. Read more

TD Bank, America's Most Convenient Bank®, has named Sinead M. Berrie the Store Manager of the store located at 555 Warren Ave. in Spring Lake Heights, N.J. Read more

Dario A. Cortes, PhD, President of Berkeley College, announced the appointment of Marianne P. Vakalis, EdD, as Provost. Dr. Vakalis previously served as Associate Provost, Faculty Affairs and as Interim Provost since January 2013. Read more

HEADLINES

Asbury Park Press

- NJ construction jobs make a comeback
- Sandy victims say Red Cross reneged

The Bergen Record

- $10M revamp for Saddle Brook hotel
- Google stumbles in second quarter

The Star Ledger

- Gas prices jump along NJ Turnpike and Parkway
- Utilities monitor rising megawatts in heat wave

Philadelphia Inquirer

- Mixed views on NJ land-preservation plan
- No cellphone tracking without warrant