NJ's Economic Climate Keeps Improving
New Jersey's economy continued to expand in June, adding 4,600 total non-farm jobs during a fifth consecutive monthly employment increase, according to preliminary data released by the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS). Read more

Sandy Rebuilding Efforts and Transparency
Now that we are at the half-way point in summer, where does New Jersey stand with the rebuilding efforts? The Office of the State Comptroller tracks the contracts and money spent on the rebuilding efforts. To read more and for a detailed breakdown of the contracts and the monies allocated, click here.

Christie Administration Expands 'reNew Jersey Stronger' Housing Initiative With $70 Million Landlord Rental Repair Program
Earlier in the week, the Christie Administration launched a $70 million Landlord Rental Repair Program to provide grants to help rental property owners repair, reconstruct or elevate rental units damaged by Sandy. Read more

MEMBER NEWS
Berkeley College is pleased to announce the appointment of Joshua T. Williams as Chair of the Fashion Department, Larry L. Luing School of Business.
TD Bank has promoted Harut Berberyan to Assistant Vice President, Store Manager of the store located at 590 Pascack Road in Washington Township, N.J. Read more

Secaucus-based Hartz Mountain Industries has signed a lease with ContainerPort Group, Inc. for 56,416 square feet at 6 International Way in Newark, NJ after making extensive upgrades to the warehouse space. Read more

Englewood Hospital and Medical Center hosted its 6th annual "Survivors Rock!" concert where cancer survivors danced and cheered throughout the evening to The Nerds, a popular New Jersey cover band. Read more

HEADLINES

Asbury Park Press
- NJ's biggest health insurer touts business model
- UK based company wants into AC casinos

The Bergen Record
- Owners of Meadowlands hospital cashing in
- Teterboro distribution center sold for $81M

The Star Ledger
- Breast cancer drugs drive Roche earnings
- Sales are declining for Coke, Pepsi and others

Philadelphia Inquirer
- Half NJ's waste could be turned into fuel
- Open-space groups seeks chunk of Bancroft

Events

Real Property Roundtable
September 10 - Hilton Hasbrouck Heights

EBC Fall Environmental Conference
September 16 - Pines Manor

Foundation for Free Enterprise Business Leaders Reception
September 18 - Stony Hill Inn

Human Resources Roundtable
September 18 - Hilton Hasbrouck Heights

EBC Roundtable
September 25 - PSEG Training Center

PENPAC Beefsteak
September 25 - The Brownstone