Now that the elections have come and gone, come hear from legislative leaders on what is at stake for New Jersey’s future as the 216th Legislature is sworn in next January. What issues will drive the political agenda in 2014? What were the lessons learned from this year’s campaign? What were the surprises and disappointments?

The experts will share their views and insights on the politics of New Jersey and what it means to business and industry and to New Jersey as a whole.

Immediately following the morning presentations, attendees are urged to stay and discuss issues and ideas for pro-active legislation which CIANJ can initiate in 2014.
